EDUCATION

FLASHPOINT CHICAGO, A CAMPUS OF HOLLYWOOD

September 2020 - Associates in Applied Science in Film

At Flashpoint, beyond my general education, I got the opportunity to work side-by-side with professionals working in the film industry, gaining proficiency with industry-standard, professional filmmaking equipment. At the same time, I experienced various roles in the film production pipeline through multiple film projects. For example, during my final semester, I produced a client-based promotional video for a company opening a new facility in the westside of Chicago during the pandemic.

ILLINOIS CENTER FOR BROADCASTING, CHICAGO

November 2013 Certificate

The Illinois Center for broadcasting prepared me for a career in radio, television, audio and video production, web development, and the business of media through in-class training and internships.
